Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Katy's Pony Challenge: Katy ...

Katy's Pony Challenge seemed different to the first three books because not so much happened in the story but I learnt more about how ponies think. For example, Trifle loved pushing the ball but hated the curtain. It has made me realise that if I am calm, my pony will be calm, especially if he trust me. I live on a farm and have a pony called Timmy. I enjoyed reading the bits about looking ...

Rosie Julyan's Review of 'Katy's Pony Challenge'

This is the sequel to Katy's Wild Foal and is every bit as good. Victoria Eveleigh clearly understands her subject matter and evokes it beautifully. I have three children around Katy's age and they love these books. Victoria captures Katy's feelings brilliantly and you really empathise with her through her trials and tribulations.
