good espresso is already a work of art in itself.

However, we all know that a good latte is usually served with some form of creative artwork on top made from the milk that the coffee is served with. You have to admit that the art on top of your espresso just makes the beverage yummiier - well at least it looks more delicious than ever. And this is where the term latte art comes into the picture. You can even say that there are a few people who obsess with the art on their cups more than the taste of their drink. Latte art refers to the artsy patterns that are created on the foam that tops your espresso. It reflects the level of creativity of the barista who prepared your drink. To make these wonderful and eye-catching designs, the one preparing the drink should take extra care with the delicate foam floating atop that shot of espresso.
