Describes the feelings of futility that may overtake one in the midst of an active, successful life, and suggests ways to use the experience to find God and deepen one's spiritual life.

Cries from the Heart offers an honest look into the lives of real men and women whose adversities were overcome through turning and listening to God, even if their problems worked out in the way they least expected. Ranging from the unusual to the ordinary, these stories may challenge you, but they'll comfort you as well, by reminding you that you're never truly alone, and that even the worst anguish can be overcome by the healing power of inner peace.

In this profound message from one of the great thinkers of our generation, Zacharias explores the inner feeling of futility that can overwhelm a human heart and helps us to see a reason for our suffering, be comforted in loneliness, and experience an abiding faith in our daily lives. Cries of the Heart is a book that both inspires and reassures...a search that uncovers our hidden sentiments and reveals God's continual inescapable presence in every moment of our lives.

"My hope is that this volume will help you to see the Savior more clearly, to understand his grace more deeply, to confess your struggle more honestly, to worship him more fully, and to find in these meditations the motivation to continue to follow the Savior even when he's leading you into unexpected and hard places." –Paul David Tripp Best-selling author Paul David Tripp invites you into his personal reflections on his experience of God's ever-present grace through the ups and downs of his life. He shares his celebrations, disappointments, cries for help, confessions, and confusions in the form of 120 meditations that were written over many years through various joys and struggles. Vulnerable yet pastoral and wise, these meditations in the form of verse showcase how God's amazing grace intersects with the mundane, unexpected, messy, and beautiful moments of everyday life.

When Hannah dares to love across the boundaries of tradition, will she lose everything? Despite being raised in a traditional Old Order Amish family, seventeen-year-old Hannah Lapp desires to break with custom, forgo baptism into the faith, and marry outside the cloistered community. She's been in love with Mennonite Paul Waddell for three years, and before returning to college for his senior year, Paul asks Hannah to be his wife. Hannah accepts, aware that her marriage will change her relationship with her family forever. On the evening of their engagement, tragedy strikes and in one unwelcome encounter, all that Hannah has known and believed is destroyed. As she finds herself entangled in questions that the Old Ways of her people cannot answer, Hannah faces the possibility of losing her place in her family, in her community- and in the heart of the man she loves. When the Heart Cries is book one in the Sisters of the Quilt series.

Throughout life's wide range of emotions and experiences, whoever and wherever you are, God is there and cares about you. When Your Heart Cries Out to God by beloved Bible teacher Harold J. Sala supports this truth with 125 brief essays and related scriptural passages on a spectrum of topics from discovering authentic Christianity, desiring peace, finding real love, and taking control of your life to more pointed feelings of worry, suffering, fear, depression, and loneliness. Whenever you need to break free from something that has you feeling discouraged or stuck along life's path, cry out to God, and you will experience His comforting presence.

Why does God not see Samantha's yearnings for a child and answer her prayers? Does God even listen when a heart cries so fervently and long?

This book is for those who are currently grieving and for those who are confronting past losses. These prayers provide words that you may need when your heart is preoccupied with the pain of loss.

She gave away her child to save his life. Another woman took him in, at risk to herself. Viviane Renaud is a young mother living on the French Riviera in World War II. Times are hard but she is not the sort to be dismayed by circumstances. One day her life changes forever. A Jewish woman, fleeing from the authorities, begs her to take care of her little boy, David. Almost without thinking, Viviane agrees. Viviane's life is never the same again. She fabricates a story explaining how David came to be with her and tip-toes around the suspicions of her neighbours, her friends and most of all her mother and sister. She and her husband, Alain, find allies in unlikely places, particularly an American woman, Dorothy Pine. But when the German army occupies the Riviera, bringing with them the SS and the Gestapo, the peril for Viviane and her family grows deadlier. The challenge now is to survive.
